The research is devoted to the urgent problem of formation of professional and innovative competence of future agronomists in the crisis conditions of the higher education system of Ukraine due to the consequences of the pandemic and the war. Modern approaches to the design of the content of education under martial law are highlighted. The structure, main trends and features of forms and methods of training specialists with a focus on new problems and challenges are revealed.

The publication is addressed to heads of higher educational institutions, pedagogical and research workers.
