

CONTENTS

SECTION 1. The concept, signs and content of administrative coercion under the conditions of martial law and state of emergency (Vyprytskyi A. O., Makhova L. O.).....	1
1. The concept and content of administrative coercion under the conditions of the state of emergency	2
2. The content of administrative coercion under the conditions of the state of emergency	10
3. The concept and content of administrative coercion in the conditions of martial law	16
SECTION 2. Prospects and inevitability of responsibility for committing war crimes, genocide, aggression and crimes against humanity (activities of the Joint Investigative Group for the Investigation of Serious International Crimes in Ukraine (JIT); cooperation with the International Criminal Court; prospects for the creation of an International ad hoc tribunal, etc.) (continued review) (Basysta I. V., Vlasova H. P., Stratonov V. M.).....	25
1. Activities of the Joint Investigative Group for the Investigation of Serious International Crimes in Ukraine (JIT).....	32
2. Cooperation with the International Criminal Court	35
3. Prospects for the creation of an International ad hoc tribunal	40
4. Prospects of compensation by Russia for damages caused by crimes committed on Ukrainian territory	50
5. Existing appeals of Ukraine to international courts and aspects of universal jurisdiction	56
SECTION 3. Collaborative activity in conditions of war: concepts and criminal liability for illegal actions (Batrachenko T. S.).....	73
1. Definition of the concept of “collaborator” and “collaborationism”	74
2. Legal analysis of the criminal offense provided for in Art. 111-1 of the Criminal Code of Ukraine.....	83
SECTION 4. Philosophical and legal reflection of administrative torts (Blahodarnyi A. M., Lysenko O. V.)	98
1. The anthropological component of determination of administrative torts	99
2. Forms of the prevention of administrative torts	105
SECTION 5. Military courts as a challenge of today in the conditions of armed aggression of the Russian Federation against Ukraine: a historical retrospective and the genesis of development (Bobrova Yu. Yu., Bobrov Yu. O.).....	112
1. Formation of the system of military courts in Ukraine as a subject of judicial power: a historical and legal excursion.....	113

2. Determinants of the creation of military courts in the judicial system of Ukraine in the conditions of armed aggression of the Russian Federation against our state	128
SECTION 6. Experience of organizing informational and psychological support of peacekeeping contingents of the Armed Forces of Ukraine as a means of preventing war crimes (based on the materials of the mission to Iraq in 2003–2005) (Vedenev D. V., Semenyuk O. G.).....	139
1. Formation of the national organizational and legal framework of peacekeeping and the tasks of its informational and psychological support.....	141
2. Leading factors influencing the moral and psychological situation around the peacekeeping contingent of Ukraine in Iraq	146
3. Informational and psychological support of Ukrainian peacekeepers in Iraq as a factor in the prevention of war crimes	150
SECTION 7. Formation of prerequisites for the formation of laws and customs of war in the ancient era: classical and modern approaches to solving the problem (Havrylenko O. A., Syroid T. L., Fomina L. O.).....	164
1. The newest views on the problem of the formation of the basis of the right of war in the Ancient East.....	165
2. Formation of the basis of the laws and customs of war in ancient Greece and Rome: modern approaches to the use of classical sources.....	180
SECTION 8. How to punish war criminals in Ukraine: mechanisms for restoring justice (Harasymiv O. I., Marko S. I., Riashko O. V.).....	205
1. War crimes: history, definition, characteristics	207
2. Problems on the way of implementation of bringing to criminal responsibility	209
3. Pretrial investigation of war crimes.....	213
SECTION 9. Specifics of repeal of custodial restraint and alteration of restraint from other grounds under martial law (article 616 of the Criminal Procedural Code of Ukraine) (Harkusha A. H.).....	219
1. Formation of legislation under martial law	221
2. Repeal of restraint for military service under conscription during mobilization	222
3. Alteration of restraint	229
SECTION 10. Specificity of journalistic documentation of environmental crimes during a full-scale military invasion of Russia into Ukraine (Honchar O. M.).....	236
1. Military Crimes and the practice of documenting them	238
2. Features of environmental crimes and the practice of documenting them in Ukraine after a full-scale Russian invasion	241

SECTION 11. Notification of suspicion of committing ideological, cultural and educational collaborationism: analysis of compliance with the requirements of Art. 277 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Hutnyk A. V.).....	250
1. Analysis of the introductory part of the notification of suspicion	252
2. Descriptive and motivational part analysis of the notification of suspicion	255
SECTION 12. Russian aggression and the political and legal status of the captured Ukrainian territories in accordance with international, Ukrainian and Russian law (Durman M. O., Durman O. L.)	274
1. Definition of research terms and conditions.....	275
2. Events of 2014 – the occupation of Crimea and the creation of illegal armed formations of the DPR and LPR	279
3. Events of 2022 – occupation of part of Kherson and Zaporizhzhia regions	284
SECTION 13. Sociological aspects of military occupation (on the example of Southern Ukraine) (Zubchenko O. S.).....	294
1. Occupation as a dysfunction of social institutions	295
2. Occupation and cooperation with the enemy	302
3. Occupation as a state of everyday life.....	306
SECTION 14. Contemporary issues of criminal liability for military offences and the need for their prevention urge immediate decisive actions to tackle the current challenges (Karpenko M. I.).....	316
1. Insights into the Ukrainian legislation on criminal liability for crimes against the established procedure of doing military service.....	317
2. Military delinquency in a special period: reasons and conditions that necessitate a reaction by public authorities	328
SECTION 15. War crimes related to the use of missile weapons: criminal, procedural and forensic aspects (Kirin R. S., Korotayev V. M.)	339
1. Problematic criminal-legal aspects of crimes related to the use of missile weapons	340
2. Separate procedural problems of involving an expert to identify the instrument of crimes of the aggressor state	344
3. Problematic issues of methodological research support missile weapons	348
SECTION 16. Concept and procedure of application of administrative responsibility in the Armed Forces of Ukraine (Komarnytska I. I.)	365
1. Delineation of administrative and disciplinary responsibility of servicemen of the Armed Forces of Ukraine	366
2. Administrative responsibility of servicemen of the Armed Forces of Ukraine	377

SECTION 17. On the question of responsibility for genocide and military aggression against Ukraine (Konstantiy O. V.).....	387
1. The commission of the crime of genocide of Ukrainian citizens by the Russian Federation from the standpoint of international law	388
2. Regarding the responsibility of the political and military leadership, military and propagandists of the Russian Federation for committing the crime of genocide in accordance with the legislation of Ukraine	394
3. Regarding the prosecution of the leaders of the Russian Federation and Belarus for the crime of military aggression against Ukraine.....	398
SECTION 18. Peculiarities of criminal responsibility for voluntarily leaving a military unit or place of service in the legal families of the world (Anglo-American, continental (Romano-Germanic), Far Eastern) (Lenda O. V.).....	407
1. General principles of the study of criminal responsibility for voluntarily leaving a military unit or place of service in the context of the specifics of certain types of legal families	408
2. Peculiarities of criminal responsibility for voluntarily leaving a military unit or place of service in the Anglo-American law family	409
3. Peculiarities of criminal liability for voluntarily leaving a military unit or place of service in the continental (Romano-Germanic) law family	413
4. Peculiarities of criminal responsibility for voluntarily leaving a military unit or place of service in a Far Eastern law family	417
SECTION 19. Socio-legal characteristics of the institution of legal responsibility of servicemen of the Armed Forces of Ukraine in the aspect of ensuring legality and law and order (Melyuk S. M., Hryhorenko Ye. I., Perederii O. S.).....	422
1. Social foundations of the formation and further development of the complex and interdisciplinary institute of legal responsibility of military personnel	423
2. Trends in the transformation of institutions of criminal and administrative responsibility of servicemen of the Armed Forces of Ukraine	431
SECTION 20. The importance of military violent criminal offenses (Morozyuk N. S.)	440
1. Practical issues of classification of certain military violent criminal offenses	440
2. The practical significance of compensation in military violent criminal offenses	451
3. The importance of military violent criminal offenses and their role for modern criminal law	455

SECTION 21. International information cooperation in the field of Criminalistics and forensic expertise in the field of Investigation and counteraction to war crimes (Nehrebetskyi V. V.).....	468
1. International cooperation of forensic experts in the field of areas of investigation of war crimes.....	469
2. Experience of foreign countries in using biometric technologies as a means of countering criminal and other offenses.....	476
3. Information and analytical systems in forensic expertise.....	481
4. Biometrics in the system of mechanisms for countering war crimes and other offenses in the war zone.....	484
SECTION 22. Ensuring military law and order by criminal and legal influence measures under the martial law in Ukraine: problems and ways of solutions (Nikolaienko T. B.).....	493
1. Military law and order as an object of military criminal offenses for ensuring the military discipline.....	494
2. The current state of ensuring the military service order in the conditions of martial law: problems and prospects.....	507
SECTION 23. Inspection of buildings and structures that were subjected to artillery shelling and bombing during the investigation of war crimes (Pilyukov Yu. O., Yusupov V. V., Banakh S. V.).....	525
1. A methodological approach to the inspection of buildings and structures that were subjected to artillery shelling and bombing during the investigation of war crimes.....	526
2. Peculiarities of the inspection of buildings and structures that were subjected to artillery shelling and bombing during the investigation of war crimes.....	532
SECTION 24. Domestic legal tradition of institutionalization of military and police formations (Pronevych O. S.).....	542
1. Articulation of the problem and the state of its research.....	543
2. The origins of the Ukrainian national tradition of institutionalization of military and police formations.....	544
3. Institutional and legal principles of operational and service activities of the Military Law and Order Service in the Armed Forces of Ukraine...	549
4. Legislative work on the institutionalization of the military police.....	558
SECTION 25. The principle of distinction as one of the grounds for the qualification of war crimes (Ptashnyk I. R.).....	568
1. Features of qualification of armed conflicts.....	569
2. Peculiarities of the principle of delimitation as a basis for further qualification of war crimes.....	575

SECTION 26. Conflict-related sexual violence: specific aspects of criminal law enforcement (Rufanova V. M.).....	584
1. Conflict-related sexual violence: concepts, forms, difference from sexual violence committed in peacetime	586
2. Criminal responsibility for conflict-related sexual violence and countermeasures	592
SECTION 27. Investigation and determination of looting from crimes against property committed in the occupied territories of Ukraine (Syvodied I. S.).....	600
1. Distinction of looting from theft, robbery, robbery, fraud and extortion	601
2. Separation of looting from other property crimes	608
SECTION 28. Prosecution for the most serious international crimes committed in Ukraine during the full-scale military invasion of the aggressor country: international legal, jurisdictional and criminal procedural aspects (Smyrnov M. I.).....	613
1. Prospects and legal consequences of Ukraine’s ratification of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court in the context of russian’s military aggression against Ukraine.....	615
2. Ukraine's recognition of the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court as a mechanism for holding russia accountable for the crime of aggression against Ukraine	618
SECTION 29. The genesis of the concept of abduction, appropriation, extortion and other forms of appropriation of military property under the criminal legislation of Ukraine (Sobko G. M., Kit R. D.).....	627
1. The first origins of the establishment of responsibility for the commission of military property criminal offenses on the territory of modern Ukraine.....	628
2. Criminal law characteristics of military property criminal offenses during the first formation of Ukraine as an independent country and in Soviet times	636
3. The current state of criminal responsibility for committing military property criminal offenses committed by military personnel	643
SECTION 30. Criminal and Law Aspects of Military Criminal Offenses Counteraction in the State Border Guard Service of Ukraine (Stepanova Yu. P.)	654
1. Legal relations arising due to the professional activity of a serviceman of the State Border Guard Service of Ukraine as an object of military criminal offenses	655
2. Normative, legal and practical aspects of criminal liability of servicemen of the State Border Guard Service of Ukraine for violation of military service relations	663

SECTION 31. The person of a war criminal who voluntarily left a military unit or place of service (Tkachenko P. I.).....	686
1. Socio-demographic characteristics of a war criminal who voluntarily left a military unit or place of service	687
2. Personal-role and moral-psychological features of a special subject of a crime, the responsibility for which is provided for in Art. 407 of the Criminal Code of Ukraine.....	694
3. Criminal-legal and general social features that constitute the criminological structure of a person who voluntarily leaves a military unit or place of service	702
SECTION 32. Some issues of qualification of pollution or damage to the lands of Ukraine committed by Russian military (Khashev V. H.).....	710
1. Analysis of the objective signs of the criminal offense provided for in Article 239 of the Criminal Code “Land pollution or damage”.....	711
2. Analysis of subjective signs of the criminal offense provided for in Article 239 of the Criminal Code “Land pollution or damage”.....	725
3. Analysis of qualified types of criminal offense provided for in Article 239 of the Criminal Code “Pollution or damage to land”.....	728
SECTION 33. Criminal offenses related to the evasion of conscription as acts of encroachment on the military security of Ukraine (Shablysty V. V., Berezniak V. S., Katorkin R. A.)	736
1. The impact of criminal offenses in the field of conscription and mobilization on the military security of Ukraine.....	737
2. Objective signs of criminal offenses related to evasion of conscription.....	743
3. Subjective signs of criminal offenses related to evasion of military service	749
SECTION 34. Criminal and legal characteristics of use of weapons of mass destruction (Shamsutdinov O. V.).....	761
1. Object of the war crime “use of weapons of mass destruction”	763
2. The objective side of the composition of the use of weapons of mass destruction.....	768
3. Subjective signs of the use of weapons of mass destruction	784
SECTION 35. Criminalistics support for the investigation of military criminal offenses and war crimes: digitalization, innovations, prospects (Shevchuk V. M.).....	795
1. Transformation of crime in the conditions of war and new tasks of criminalistics through the prism of digitalization	797
2. Problems of the formation of military criminalistics and its role in modern conditions.....	801
3. Digital criminalistics and its role in the detection and investigation of war crimes and military criminal offenses	805

SECTION 36. Criminal and Legal Provision of military security of Ukraine (Yunin O. S., Shevchenko S. I.)	823
1. The concept of national security and its relationship with military security.....	824
2. Concepts and signs of military security of Ukraine.....	833
3. Criminal offenses against the military security of Ukraine	837
SECTION 37. Criminal characteristics of willful destruction or damage of military property (Yurikov O. O.)	847
1. Objective signs of intentional destruction or damage to military property.....	848
2. Subjective signs of intentional destruction or damage to military property.....	853
3. Improvement of the Criminal Code of Ukraine in terms of liability for intentional destruction or damage to military property	858