

CONTENT

INTRODUCTION.	1
1
THE INITIAL GROUNDS FOR THE LEGAL DYSFUNCTION OF ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY AT THE LEVEL OF A REAL THREAT TO NATIONAL SECURITY.	11
1.1. Correlations of human virtues and legislative requirements in the foundations of human community's unity: EU case.	13
1.2. Laminarity, reciprocity, mutual enrichment and other immanent features of the European nations law and integrity interaction.	18
1.3. Verification of illegal components in the national anti-corruption legislation.	21
1.4. Dichotomy of corruption and legal institutions for its elimination as part of national security.	24
2
THE DIALECTICAL TRANSITION OF ANTI-CORRUPTION MEASURES INSOLVENCY INTO A REAL THREAT TO NATIONAL SECURITY.	32
2.1. Corruption as a determinant of war with an external aggressor.	34
2.2. Conditions for the creation and application of law in anti-corruption policy.	43
3
CAPACITY AND CONTENT OF THE STRATEGY FOR ELIMINATING CORRUPTION THREATS TO NATIONAL SECURITY.	51
3.1. Human virtues and law values in the strategy of eliminating corruption threats to national security.	52
3.2. Legal capacity in the anti-corruption component of national security.	56
3.3. Substantive components of law in national security.	60
3.4. Matrix for identifying the degree of corruption threats to national security.	66
4
INTERNATIONAL LEGAL INSTRUMENTS IN ELIMINATING CORRUPTION THREATS TO NATIONAL SECURITY.	73
4.1. Anti-corruption requirements of the international community as a mean for eliminating corruption threats to national security.	75

4.2. The UN, the EU and other subjects of international law in the system of eliminating corruption threats to national security.	84
5
SYNERGY OF LEGAL RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL ANTI-CORRUPTION INSTITUTIONS IN NEUTRALIZING A REAL THREAT TO NATIONAL SECURITY.	99
5.1. Formation of the national anti-corruption infrastructure resilience for strengthening national security.	100
5.2. Reflection of ensuring integrity national legal traditions in international anti-corruption law.	115
6
ELIMINATION OF ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY SHORTCOMINGS OF THE REAL THREAT TO NATIONAL SECURITY LEVEL BY USING THE RELEVANT EU COUNTRIES EXPERIENCE.	121
CONCLUSIONS.	132
SUMMARY (in English, Farsi, German, Portuguese, Crioula).	143
REFERENCES.	148
ANNEX. An allegorical illustration of the actions of some public officials and entrepreneurs who destroy the lives of other people, deprive the nation of its future.	163